CRYSTAL BALL

Words and Music by ALECIA MOORE and BILLY MANN

Acoustic Folk

I'm drinking wine and thinking bliss is on the other side of this,
Sometimes you think everything is wrapped inside a diamond ring.

I just need a compass and a willing accomplice,
Love just needs a witness and a little forgiveness and a

All my doubts have filled my head, cascading up and down again, halo of patience and a less sporadic pace and I'm

up and down around again,
learning to be brave in my down and up and down again.

Oh, I've had my chances fire and I've, I've been burned,

But I wouldn't trade the pain for what I've learned, just to end up right back here on the floor, end up right back here on the floor.  Pen-nies in a well, a million dollars in the fountain of a hotel.  Fortune teller says maybe you will go to hell.  But I'm not scared at all,

mmm, of the cracks of the crystal, the cracks in the crystal ball.

done.

Penny in a well, a million dollars in the fountain of a hotel. Broken mirrors and a black cat's cold stare, walk under ladders on my way to hell. I'll meet you there.

I'm not scared at all.

no, I'm not scared at all

cracks in the crystal, the cracks in the crystal ball.
